Affiliate Membership Information

An affiliate membership is granted to adults 19 years of age or older, who are single or a couple in a spousal, common law, or similar relationship, provided the full dues have been paid, and is restricted to parents or guardians of junior members. This is a one-time only, temporary membership. Parents or guardians of junior members may extend their affiliate membership for up to five years in total, provided one of the members of their household remains a junior member.

Affiliate members pay no initiation fee, and annual dues are fifty (50) percent of senior membership dues. The annual dues are a fixed fee and are not prorated over the membership year. The affiliate member membership year is the same as the junior membership year.

Affiliate members shall enjoy the privileges of the society, but shall not have the right to vote or hold office in the society, nor shall they have any proprietary rights in the assets of the society.

Procedure

All applications shall be posted on the society notice board for a period of seven (7) days, during which period senior and honorary life members in good standing may register their disapproval in writing to the executive if they consider that the applicant's membership will be contrary to the best interests of the society.

The executive shall consider the application and may grant membership by a majority vote of the executive.

Upon acceptance into the society the new member(s) will be notified.
